15/2/03 Title: "Taking The Pith Out of the Myth".

Concept: English country gardens

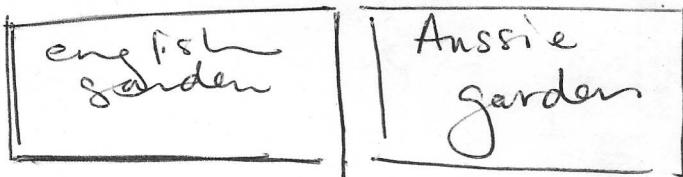

failed enterprise - examples in the outback, wheat belt etc.

Concept: the nature of isolation and its' effect on creativity, adaptivity, vernacular adaptation.

The stockmen - sunburnt, stressed, alcoholic exploding the stereotype - removing the romantic notions of what has and what is "Australia"

- Gardens as a signifier or site to indicate failed enterprise - the in-built colonial spirit - taming the immediate environment - an english country garden in the middle of the arid landscape - water sealer - waste.

Juxtaposition

Daniel's garden - attempt at reflecting his own and mother's experiences

- the bush men - the hard tough
colonial spirit
